"Vicious"
                                  (Lou Reed)

[Inspired by Andy Warhol, who told Lou Reed "I think you should write a song called 'Vicious'."]

Intro [main riff, 2X]:
        D      C  G     C *
        / / / /  / / / /
                          * bass plays A under second C chord throughout

Verse 1:

        D       C  G
        Vicious
          C              D       C  G
        You hit me with a flower
            C            D     C  G
        You do it every hour
                    C          D     C  G  C
        Ohh, baby you're so vicious

Verse 2:

        Vicious
        You want me to hit you with a stick
        But all I've got's a guitar pick
                                 D    C  G  D
                                 / / / /  /
        Huh... baby you're so vicious

Bridge 1:

        A
        When I watch you come
        G                 D   C  G  D
                          / / / /  /
        I just want to run    far away
        A
        You're not the kind of person
        G                       D   C    D
                                / / / /  /
        Around whom I want to stay

        Em     F#m               G

        When I see you comin' down the street
          Em              F#m            G
        I step on your hands and I mangle your feet
            Em                 F#m               G      A
        You're not the kind of person that I wanna meet
                              D
        Oh, baby, you're so vicious

        [Guitar solo over main riff]

        (You're just so vicious)

[repeat verse 1]

Verse 3:

        Vicious
        Hey, why don't you swallow razor blades
        You must think I'm some kinda gay blade
                              D   C G  D
                              / / / /  /
        But baby, you're so vicious

Chorus 2:

        When I watch you comin'
        I just have to run
        You're not good and you certainly aren't very much fun
        When I see you walkin' down the street
        I step on your hand and I mangle your feet
        You're not the kind of person that I even wanna meet
        'Cause you're so vicious

Coda [repeat main riff to fade]:

        Vicious
        Vicious...
```
